is largely a question of vitality and the preservation of the faculties. If you constantly waste nerve force and strain your eyes through some defect of vision, you are sapping your vitality.

AUTOMOBILE EVILS

Honolulu, June 23, 1908.

EDITOR STAR:—The automobile may be an exigency of the times, nevertheless when we consider the smell, smoke, noise, speed and its dust and mud distributing capacity, and death dealing power, we have to admit no greater, or more objectionable equipage was ever devised by man. And it's a fact, that they are fast destroying the beauty of this city, as well as the pleasure of living here. But they are here, and doubtless have come to stay; though our flowers, trees, houses and ourselves are to be covered with dust an inch thick.

But is there no way to prevent this unpleasantness? In California, I understand, to overcome this evil they make dustless roads, which entirely overcome this trouble. And if dustless road can be made there why not here?
Indeed, I think we should make an effort to do this at whatever cost.

As to the cost I believe as these machines are, among other things, great road destroyers, they should be taxed accordingly. That is, if they destroy a road a hundred times more than a carriage then they should pay a hundred times more taxes. For with the exception of narrow wheel dray or truck, which ought to be ruled off our roads, nothing can equal the automobile for destroying roads. And if this cannot be done, I believe it were better to increase the taxes, objectionable as that may be, then to have to endure the present state of things. For is it not a shame that this beautiful city, the boast of the Pacific, should be spoiled in this way, when at no great cost it could be prevented?

One word about the speed limit. I want to say it's my opinion that a speed of fifteen miles an hour is entirely too fast for these machines to run in the most populous parts of the city, say on Fort street and nearby streets, whatever it may be for the outside streets.

Very truly,
GEORGE OSBORNE.

WRONGLY BLAMED

A strange mixture of facts was included in, according to Attorney Frank Thompson, in charging him with having run into a hack while driving his automobile last night. In the first place the lawyer was not driving in his own machine, but was riding in a machine which he had hired. Secondly, the machine did not run into the hack at all but when two blocks away from the horse it was seen that the animal was frightened at something and had run up on the sidewalk. The machine went past and did not come anywhere near touching the horse or vehicle, and after this the animal threw itself.
Thompson made his driver stop and went back to give assistance. He helped to unharness the animal and get things straightened out and so got into trouble through acting the Good Samaritan.

MADAME ARRAL HERE.

Madame Blanche Arral arrived in the Maunaka as pretty as a picture, as vicious as one would wish, and already delighted with Honolulu. She has been stinging to the people of Suva for a month and scored a tremendous success there. So greatly was she admired that every inducement was offered her to remain over but she declined to do so on account of her Honolulu engagement. She will appear at the Hawaiian Opera House June 30. Seats are now on sale at Wall, Nichols Co., Ltd.

DECLINES MONEY

A very peculiar suit in equity was filed in the Circuit Court this morning by Goo Hoy vs. Charles Lucas. It appears that the plaintiff borrowed certain money from Lucas some time ago, giving a mortgage as security. He wishes to pay the debt, now standing at $546.81, and have the mortgage released, but Lucas would rather have the mortgage than the money and refuses to give a release. The suit is brought asking that the court force Lucas to take the money due him and release the mortgage.

From a Paris newspaper is taken the following conversation in a police court: The president, addressing the prisoner, said sternly, "It appears from your record that you have been thirty-seven times previously convicted." To which the prisoner answered sententiously, "Man is not perfect."

LURLINE FOR COAST

Soon after 10 o'clock this morning the Matson Navigation Co.'s fine new S. S. Lurline, Captain Weedon, got away from the foot of Nuuanu for San Francisco, full laden and with numerous passengers. She and the S. S. Mauna Kea were somewhat crowded in the slip and the Mauna Kea narrowly missed losing her boats from the docks. The Hawaiian band played, there were hundreds of people on the wharf and the usual demonstration forthcame.
